

PRIO UTOMO
Director, Strategic Business Development
Cisco Systems Indonesia

He is 15 years veteran in ICT industry with vast exposure and experience in organization technology adoption. In Cisco responsible for development and adoption of adjacent technology in strategic market like transportation, manufacturing, energy and utility.

Holds Master degree on professional computing and obtained industry technology certifications like Cisco Certified Internetwork Expert and ICT Process and Security Governance. And preaches on many events on smart and intelligence systems in city, education, transportation, utility and energy, manufacturing including industry next wave of Internet ~ Internet of Everything/things.